

At the conclusion of a meeting those in charge of tickets yesterday it was discovered that the freshmen and sophomore years would not have sufficient representation unless more tickets were sold to members. In connection with the banquet the Committee in charge issued the following statement: "The banquet is absolutely informal, free and easy, and is designed to give to all members of the Art Undergraduate Society an opportunity of meeting on common ground and at the same time hearing a speaker who has a Dominion-wide reputation."

Dr. Robert Bruce Taylor, principal of Queen's University is to deliver the chief address of the evening. Toasts will be responded to by a number of popular professors. The special souvenir program is claimed to be something unique, and carries on to cover a drawing of the Old Arts Building.

SWIMMING AND WATER-POLO

MERMEN WILL SEEK REVENGE ON DARTMOUTH

(By the Natatory Nymph)

The swimming and polo teams are in splendid condition for their big contest to-night against the Dartmouth Mermen. The meet is scheduled for 8.15 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Tank which has been the scene of many strenuous contests during the last few weeks. The previous battles have been of the Juniors but now is the great event and the Inter-collegiate team makes its debut. These probabilities will put up the fight of their lives for their ultimate selection depends on the showing that they make to-night.

The Dartmouth team arrived last night and reported their condition as very favourable. A week ago they and Yale as visitors to the Spaulding pool and in this journey they lost out to the tune of 30 1-2-26 1-2 points. Bryant who captains their team is the mainstay for the speed events and he finished second to Bronson of Yale in both 50 yds and 100 yds, but the times recorded were American Inter-collegiate records. Bogart of Dartmouth holds the plunge record for the performance of 75 feet in 39 2-3 seconds. As the end of the K. of C. Tank is not ad-justable, they will have to stop at 75 feet when he competes with Forsythe who is making every ounce of his weight tell. Michael too gained honours from the Yale men but he will have to be a world beater to gain the decision from Forsythe in the spring board diving.

As the plunge has been eliminated from Inter-Collegiate contests in the States Bogart of Dartmouth has had no competitive events in which he has been able to force to his utmost. It is hoped that this will in no way be to his disadvantage for all at events it is best to meet a foe on an equal footing.

There should be no lack of spirited action in the Old Boys-McGill polo game, for during practices there have been tussles that give promises of something more than good polo. The team will not be fatigued from swimming for with the exception of Clarholm they are not participating even then Coach Vernot will be quite useful with his subs.

Two special events are to be included and the evening's show is promised to be the best the city has seen for some time both for talent and surprises. In adding a word of welcome to our American brothers we trust the Scarlet Key Society does not lead them to ways that will make them forget their date.

a baritone solo. Sohy will be remembered as a soloist who delighted many large audiences at several musical functions last year. The M. G. H. Quartet which is composed of Doctors Leech, Harris, Campbell and Bicer of the General Hospital are putting on several numbers which would do credit to any high class vaudeville bill.

The toast list will be as follows:
The King—Proposed by the Chairman.
Alma Mater—Proposed by Cliff Menzies and responded to by Dean Martin.

Our Guest—Introduced by Dr. J. Rhea and addressed by Dr. Thomas McCrea.

The Faculty—Proposed by B. C. MacLean (president of the Students' Council) and responded to by Dr. J. C. Meakins.

The Graduating Class—Proposed by Dr. D. Slater Lewis and responded to by N. W. Philpott.

Sister Universities and Canadian Medical Association—Proposed by N. J. Abey and responded to by Dr. T. C. Routley, Secretary of the C.M.A.

Students are reminded that the dinner is to begin at 7.30 sharp. Tables are arranged to hold eight persons, seats can be arranged by seeing Crawford at the Medical Building or Freddy Bowman at the General Hospital after a special clinic which is being given by Dr. McCrea this morning, commencing at 9.30.

Tickets may be purchased from class representatives or bought at the door.

SECONDS PLAY ENGINEERS A.C.: SENIORS BETTER

THE SENIORS

A full week of hard work has put both teams in fine condition and in line to win the remainder of their scheduled games. The seniors have two more games to go through and as both are at home chances for victories in both cases look good. Next Friday the seniors will meet in a return match the quintette from Western University. The seniors lost out at London by a small margin and expect to turn the tables when the men from the prairies come to Canada's metropolis. On the 27th of this month, Queen's University will be the visiting team and from what the players have been heard to remark, the Queen's basketball team will have to do some tall basketball playing to repeat the feat they performed at Kingston. Both games, though they will have little bearing on the championship as far as McGill is concerned, should prove highly interesting ones to watch.

THE INTERMEDIATES

The intermediates get into action again tonight when they will line up against the Engineers A.C. in the latter's gymnasium. In the home game McGill seconds lost out to the Engineers by a very small margin and in the last few minutes of play. The intermediates have improved considerably since the beginning of the season and expect to spring a surprise and beat the lion in his own den. The personnel of the intermediates team will be the same one that has been playing lately with the exception of "Chick" Schwartzman, who hurt his knee in the game with Bishop's University, and will as a result be unable to play. McRoberts, who has been doing some good relief work, will take his place, alongside Johnson. Captain Fred Weldon will jump centre. The forward line will consist of Loomis and Silverman, with Ryder and Statton relieving. The latter has been showing up well lately and can always be depended upon to do some scoring. The Engineers have not lost a game as yet and a win for McGill tonight will show the relative strength of the teams. The seconds are out for a win and that's half the battle won.

SPORTS MEET OFF TO FLYING START out to watch while the times made in the two races were good. In the one mile downhill there was only one minute separating the first and the last of the six competitors. Beaubien of Loyola took first in this event. In the Ski Proficiency Maxwell took first place.

This morning at 10.30 the seven mile cross country ski race and the five mile snow-shoe race take place. But McGill and U. of M. have strong entries.

The big event of the Meet, the open ski-jumping competition will be run off at the Montreal Ski Club jump on Cote des Neiges Road at 2.30 this afternoon. In addition to the McGill men, two jumpers from Middlebury College are entered.

The summary of yesterday's events follows:

McGILL TOOK THREE BOUNTS LAST NIGHT

got the decision from Ide of Queen's after an extra six minutes of wrestling. Touzel had his man within an arm of a fall several times but lacked the science to put over the finishing touch. There seemed no call for an extra round as Touzel had a good edge throughout. Ide showed a remarkable ability to save himself in tight corners.

158 pound wrestling. Sparring of Varsity took the decision from Nagel of Queen's by superior knowledge of the game. Sparring was on top most of the time and was forcing the fight at all stages.

117 pounds boxing. Bert Taylor encountered a tough customer in Goodman of Queen's and was forced to the limit to win though he had a good edge in the last round. He hit Goodman repeatedly in the final round and showed all the class of an intercollegiate champion. Both men mixed in freely but Bert was there with the goods.

168 pound boxing. Fidler of Varsity, last year's champion, took on Gordie Hughes in a heavy hitting contest. Gordie did his best to knock his man out after taking heavy punishment for two rounds but Fidler took all he had though not able to give much. Gordie was almost out on his feet but gamely kept on trying to floor Fidler. The Varsity man's condition told and Hughes lost out on poor condition as much as anything. It was one of the best bouts of the evening and there was not an idle moment. Hughes got a great hand for his game showing.

175 lb boxing. Howard of Queen's took the decision from last year's heavyweight champion, Mahon the Toronto entry. Howard had the fight cold all the way and soaked the much bigger Mahon time after time. Mahon had his arms set for a knockout blow but could not get it over. Howard showed good boxing ability and will give Keller a good fight in tonight's bout.

EXHIBITION HOCKEY WON BY M.S.P.E., 1-0

On Thursday evening on the Hollow Rink the M. S. P. E. hockey team defeated R. V. C. in an exhibition game. The only goal, from the M. S. P. E. right wing was made early in the first period; and, though both teams worked hard they were unable to find the net in either of the succeeding periods. The game was rather ragged owing to the heavy wind.

The line-up was as follows:—
R. V. C. M. S. P. E.
R. Hartz E. Amaron
G. Sharpe B. Thompson
M. Burland M. Schnebly
A. Adams D. Mackell
R. Turley A. Armstrong
M. Martin H. Ma'mstedt
Subs
H. Gilman E. Small
..... B. Newman

This morning the M. S. P. E. hockey team is playing Macdonald College at St. Anne's.

LOW DISCUSSES TRADE RELATIONS

which owing to the diversified climate of the country, every kind could be grown. On one estate alone in the Transvaal there are over a million trees. Owing to the fact that the seasons in South Africa are the opposite to our own while South African fruits are coming in when ours are finished.

One of the most recent developments of the country, and the one holding out the most promise for the future is that of cotton growing. There are now 75,000 acres under development and estimates are that there is three or four more million acres of available cotton land. The tobacco industry is also an important one. Turkish types being mostly grown. Sugar cane is also being grown to a large extent. It was hoped, Mr. Louw said, to develop the export wine trade.

Transvaal is very rich in minerals, there being more than 43 varieties found. Of great value is the recent discovery of platinum. Industrially South Africa is in the infant stage of development but the present government is pledged to a policy of protection, hoping in this manner to build up the country's industries.

South African railways are of interest to Canadians as being one government owned system that is paying a profit. Last year the Railways had a surplus of £800,000. The railways are used to develop the country. South African goods being carried at a lower rate than those of other countries.

South Africa has a race problem that, while resembling that of Canada is different to the extent that while bilingualism in Canada is restricted to one province in Canada, in South Africa both races are about equal and are spread over the entire country. There is a better feeling today than ever before, the speaker declared, due to the fact that the two languages enjoyed absolute equality. Both languages are taught in the schools of your generosity in your attempts to discover new talent. The day has passed when people may scoff at the connection between college classes and the production of material of literary value." Professor P. V. D. Shelly, head of the University of Pennsylvania English Department, writes: "I am in very strong sympathy with the project, and we shall be only too glad to do everything in our power to interest the students of the University of Pennsylvania in the competition." Professor J. W. Rankin of the University of Missouri says: "The plan certainly does appeal to us here. I think it will do a great deal towards stimulating an interest in good writing at this and all other institutions eligible." And Professor J. C. McCall, of the University of Virginia, expresses a similar opinion: "I think you are doing real service to the Departments of English in the colleges and universities."

The final judges are to be Christopher Morley, Zona Gale, and William McFee. The conditions of the Contest permit each college or university to enter by May 1, 1926, not more than five pieces of prose written by undergraduate students. The selection of these five manuscripts is to be made by the head of the English Department or some one authorized by him for the purpose. It is expected that in each college the closing date for competitors to submit manuscripts will be fixed in advance of May 1 in order to allow time for the selection of the five entries.

To be eligible, manuscripts must be not more than four thousand words long in the case of essays, articles, the country. Within the next five years, Mr. Louw thought, racial disunion in South Africa will have disappeared.

Canada taken the lead in establishing trade commissions in foreign countries, the speaker thought, it complimented Canada also on the class of men she had representing her, and the value of the work they were doing for the country.

Mr. Louw had some very kind words to say regarding the "Daily" and complimented it on its Journalism.

Though Mr. Louw was of Dutch descent and did not learn to speak English until he was fourteen he did not speak with the slightest accent. This luncheon was under the auspices of the Commercial Society and was very well attended.

photographs, that the stream lines of a slowly flowing liquid are mathematically identical with the lines of induction of a magnetic field. By this means one can determine the magnetic field in cases too difficult for calculation.

Professor Brown concluded with the statement that, although their discoveries were generally accepted, it must be born in mind that they obtained their results under two dimensions and not under three.

Before the lecture started Professor Keys reminded the audience of Prof. Humphrey's lecture on "Clouds and Cloud Phenomena" to be held in the Convocation Hall of the R. V. C. which would be open to the public. He also asked that as many members of the society as possible be present at their next meeting in order to help show around the Physics Building the members of the American Optical Society who would be present.

improvement in Chicago which cost, approximately $16,000,000 increased surrounding property values more than $100,000,000. The $30,000,000 spent by Chicago in widening streets is said to have increased the real estate value on adjacent streets 300 million dollars.

What of the spiritual values? They are incalculable. Whether we regard the improvement in the happiness of the comfort of the people or the enrichment of their lives.

The speaker was thanked by Prof. P. Nobbs who told the audience of the purpose of these lectures and what results were to be anticipated.
